

MR. SPEAKER, KEEP YOUR CAMPAIGN PROMISE:

LET THE PEOPLE OF INDIANA VOTE

to preserve traditional marriage in 2008

You made a promise to every Hoosier TO DEFEND marriage, and we won't let you forget:

November 2004

Indiana voters remove Representative Patrick Bauer as Speaker of the Indiana House in response to his leadership in blocking a vote on protecting marriage as only between one man and one woman, for which he was given an award by the Indiana Civil Liberties Union.

October 2006

Representative Bauer promises the voters of Indiana, if elected as Speaker of the Indiana House, he will allow "...a final vote in that chamber on a constitutional amendment" to defend traditional marriage.

YOU SAID:

"If I am elected Speaker of the Indiana House after the November 7 general election, I will allow committee meetings, floor debate and a final vote in that chamber on a constitutional amendment to prohibit gay marriages in Indiana."

ARE YOU A MAN OF YOUR WORD?

 Statement of Rep. B. Patrick Bauer, October 26, 2006. http://www.in.gov/legislative/house_democrats/repsites/r6/rss/R06_20061026.html

March 2007

After continued delay, Speaker Bauer is now considering a change to the amendment that would severely weaken traditional marriage and deny the people a vote on the issue until at least 2010.

"The Crossroads of America"

Citizens of Indiana and America stand at a crossroads: Will our elected leaders fulfill their promises to defend traditional marriage or will they bend to unrelenting pressure from the radical left seeking to transform a fundamental institution of society? It's a question Speaker Bauer should answer today!

The Indiana Senate has voted THREE times, and the Indiana House has voted ONCE, to overwhelmingly approve SJR 7 – the Marriage Amendment. Instead of playing party politics with the Marriage Amendment, demonstrate leadership for ALL of Indiana.

Allow the House a vote on the Marriage Amendment AS WRITTEN
