Would America Ever Be the Same?

Nancy Pelosi - Speaker of the House

Harry Reid - Senate Majority Leader

Marriage:

CHANGED!

Senator Obama, House Speaker Nancy Pelosi (D-Calif.) and other Democratic leaders in Congress oppose the Federal Defense of Marriage Act. This law protects Ohioans from activist judges who would impose homosexual marriage against our wishes.

"I support the complete repeal of the Defense of Marriage Act (DOMA) - While some say we should repeal only part of the law, I believe we should get rid of that statute altogether."

- Open Letter from Barack Obama to Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender activists, February 2008

Sanctity of Life:

CHANGED!

Senator Obama says that his first priority as president will be to sign the Freedom of Choice Act, effectively overturning Ohio's laws on parental notification, conscience protections, and limits on tax funding for abortion.

"The first thing I'd do as President is sign the Freedom of Choice Act."

- Remarks from Barack Obama to Planned Parenthood Action Fund, July 2007

Freedom of Speech:

CHANGED!

Senator Obama and other Democratic leaders in Congress support the reinstatement of the "Fairness Doctrine," an unfair policy repealed more than 20 years ago that would regulate opinions expressed on talk radio - stifling conservative voices like Sean Hannity and Rush Limbaugh.

"As president, Obama will . . . clarify the public interest obligations of broadcasters who occupy the nation's spectrum."

Wealth Creation:

CHANGED!

Government redistribution of wealth is a philosophy that has failed wherever it has been tried. Senator Obama and House Finance Committee Chairman Barney Frank (D-Mass.) have vowed to increase taxes to pay for tens of billions of dollars in new government spending.

"I think that when we spread the wealth around, it's good for everybody."

- Senator Obama to Joe the Plumber, October 2008

Faith Protections in Public Charities:

CHANGED!

Senator Obama would remove the ability of churches or ministries which operate publicly funded social services to hire people of their own faith.

"You can't discriminate . . . against the people you hire - on the basis of their religion."

- Senator Obama's speech on faith-based charities, July 1, 2008

Secret Ballots in Union Elections:

CHANGED!

Senator Obama and other Democratic leaders in Congress want to enact "card-check" legislation costing every worker in the country the right to vote by secret ballot on whether or not to form a union.

"We will pass the Employee Free Choice Act. It's not a matter of if it's a matter of when. We may have to wait for the next president to sign it, but we will get this thing done."
