

Zack Kassebaum

Director of Enrollment, University of Phoenix

Zack's reputation has been built around his notable success in building teams and training leadership for entities ranging from small groups to multi-national corporations. Currently serving as a Director of Enrollment for the University of Phoenix, he entered the business realm after spending a decade in volunteer and professional youth leadership, during which he was a Pastor to Youth at two congregations.

An invited speaker throughout the United States and in Africa, Honduras and the Carpathian mountain region of Romania, Zack will offer fresh perspective and sound techniques to help you advance the Conservative viewpoint in your community.